AMENDMENT TO H.R. 5658, AS REPORTED
OFFERED BY MR. McDERMOTT OF WASHINGTON

At the end of subtitle C of title XII of the bill, add the following new section:

1   SEC. 12xx. SENSE OF CONGRESS ON OPEN COMMUNICA-
2                   TION AND RESPONSIBLE DIPLOMACY WITH 3                   CERTAIN KEY STATE ACTORS IN ORDER TO 4                   REDUCE REGIONAL AND GLOBAL TENSIONS.

5       (a) FINDINGS.—Congress finds the following:

6           (1) Presidents of the United States throughout 7       our history have communicated and negotiated with 8       adversarial nations.

9           (2) President John F. Kennedy said, “Let us
10      never negotiate out of fear, but let us never fear to 11      negotiate.”, and exemplified this by negotiating with 12      Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev, even at the 13      height of the Cuban Missile Crisis, and later met
14      with Premier Khrushchev in person.

15          (3) President Ronald W. Reagan negotiated
16      with the Soviet Union about arms control and met
17      with Mikhail Gorbachev during the Cold War.

18          (4) The Administration of George W. Bush has 19      at different times negotiated with North Korea on

1 its nuclear weapons program, with Libyan Leader
2 Moammar Gaddafi on terrorism and renewing diplo-
3 matic relations, and with Iran on the situations in 4 Afghanistan and Iraq.

5 (5) Secretary of Defense Robert Gates and Sec-
6 retary of State Condoleezza Rice have both publicly 7 favored negotiations with Iran and Ambassador
8 Ryan Crocker has been meeting with the Iranians on 9 stabilizing the situation in Iraq.

10 (b) SENSE OF CONGRESS.—It is the sense of the 11 Congress that—

12 (1) the sacrifice made by members of the 13 United States Armed forces and their families is 14 among the noblest endeavors for which a nation
15 could ask, and their current efforts in Iraq, Afghani-16 stan, and elsewhere is something for which they 17 should feel proud;

18 (2) the decision to send troops into combat is 19 the most serious decision a nation can make, given 20 the human toll that can result with such a decision
21 and the foreign policy impact that will reverberate
22 and endure; and

23 (3) the United States should seek open commu-
24 nication and responsible diplomacy with key state
25 actors, such as Iran, in order to reduce regional and

1       global tensions and ensure that the decision to send 2       troops into combat is one always chosen only as a
3       last resort, after exhausting all diplomatic opportu-
4       nities.
